Tutoring Experience

With a decade of tutoring experience, I have honed my skills in guiding students through the intricacies of IB, A-Level, and IGCSE Biology, as well as TOK and the Extended Essay. My teaching philosophy centers on making learning an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. I believe in creating a supportive environment where students feel encouraged to ask questions and explore their curiosity. As an IB educator, I've worked with students from diverse backgrounds, helping them achieve top scores by tailoring my lessons to their individual needs. My approach integrates practical examples, interactive discussions, and critical thinking exercises to build confidence and mastery in the subject. I take pride in my students' successes, many of whom have gone on to excel in their chosen fields, thanks to the strong academic foundations we built together.
