Tutoring Experience

I have over five years of tutoring experience, working with students from various academic backgrounds. My journey began as a peer tutor in university, and since then, I've honed my skills in teaching IB and IGCSE Biology and Maths. I understand the challenges students face, and I tailor my approach to each individual's needs, making complex topics more accessible. I also specialize in BMAT and UCAT preparation, offering strategic guidance on how to tackle these challenging exams. My students appreciate my patient and methodical approach, which helps them build confidence and achieve their academic goals.
